

Privacy Notice

Harwood EA Ltd. includes Harwood Estate Agents in Broseley & Wellington. This privacy policy explains how we use any personal information we collect about you.

What information do we collect about you?

We collect information about you when you register with Harwood, enquire about a property we are marketing or place an enquiry to instruct our services to sell or let your property or engage in the other services we offer.

How will the information collected about you be used?

We collect information about you in order to provide you with our property services as instructed by you the consumer.

These services include but are not limited to; valuing a property for sale or let, marketing a property for sale or let, replying to enquires about properties we have for sale or let including booking viewings and obtaining feedback for the landlord/vendor, negotiating, agreeing and progressing offers on properties for sale or rent, including checking purchasers and tenants credentials, arranging for tradespeople to contact tenants for legislative requirements and or repairs.

We may contact you in the future to offer our services if we have a legitimate reason to do so, for example; if we have valued your property previously and recently sold property in your locality we may contact you to see if you were interested in instructing our services formally given the activity in your area. Likewise if you have enquired about a specific property and another of the same type comes onto the market we may contact you to ascertain if you would be interested.

With your consent, we will add you to our property applicant mailing list and email or telephone you about properties that maybe of interest to you via our weekly email and property matches. These email correspondences may also provide brief updates about market conditions, new legislation updates, useful information when buying/selling or renting a property.

All information processed by Harwood EA is fully accessed and utilised by both offices in Wellington & Broseley.

Third parties who process data for Harwood in order to provide our service to you include but are not limited to:

- 55 houses to provide Photography & Floor plans
- Tim Gough to provide Photography, Floor plans & EPC's

Marketing

As an applicant looking for a property to let or buy we would like to send you information about properties and services of our company that maybe of interest to you. If you have consented to receive marketing, you may opt out at a later date using the 'unsubscribe link' in all marketing emails.

We will only refer you to third party companies for services we do not provide directly once separate and clear consent has been given to that of our own company marketing.

You have a right at any time to stop Harwood from contacting you for marketing purposes.

If you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes please contact Harwood using the details below to enable your 'right to be forgotten'.

Access to your information, correction, holding your data.

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please email or write to Harwood at the contact information below. We may make a small charge for this service.

We want to make sure that all your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask Harwood to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

We will keep your data on file for up to 3 years after the last point of interaction for marketing purposes but will keep data where it is legally required for the given period.

Data security

Appropriate privacy controls and measures are built into our systems that process personal data. All our processes and procedures include and reflect current requirements of the GDPR and our staff are given full and frequent training.

Data Breaches

If a data breach were to occur it is reported to the Data Office immediately who will in turn report it to the ICO within 72 Hours. Following the investigation by the ICO you may or may not be notified of any breach depending on its severity and the instructions of the ICO.

Changes to our privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we place updates on our website. This privacy policy was last updated 1st May 2018.
